About Me:

Hello! I am Maria Valbuena, currently in my second year at CRCDS. Originally from Venezuela, I graduated with a degree in Civil Engineering, but my deep passion for education and love for children have inspired me to pursue a career in the field of teaching. I am married and blessed with two wonderful children who fill my life with joy. My family and I love to travel and embrace the outdoors, especially hiking through nature and discovering new places.

My Favorite Treats:

- Snacks: Cheese Crisps- Lays
- Candy: Candy Scented Candles
